BALLET AIDS TO BEAUTY

Washington Resident and Offi-Throngs Society Rauscher's for Event.

By happy accident or still happier in-spiration the night of the first perform-ance of the Serge de Diaghilest Imperial Ballet Russe was selected for the ball given at Rauscher's last evening by a committee of prominent Washington women for the benefit of the sick and wounded soldiers of Russia.

Not only did the presence of a of the Russian dancers, who volunteered their services for the cause, add a touch of exotic beauty and interest to the gorgeous spectacle at Rauscher's, but at the National Theater the splendor and artistry before the footlights found echo in the audience which was one of the most brilliant that has filled a theater this season. The kakoshnik the gorgeous headdress of the Russian women, which was worn by many of those who went on from the Russian ballet to the Russian ball, gave a mar relously picturesque note to the assem-

The ball, which added a tidy sum to the fund for the benefit of the Russian soldiers, was one of the smartest as well as the most brilliant functions given in Washington this winter.

Representatives of the embassies of France, Great Britain, Italy, Japan, and Belgium, the allies of Russia, were prominent in the throng, neutral diplomats by the score were numbered smong the guests, and among the most emong the guests, and among the most interesting personages present were Mr. Disphileft and Ernest Ansermet, who conducted the orchestra at the ballet.

Mrs. Blaine Beale, Viscountess de Sibour, Mrs. William Littauer, Mrs. Ciarence Wilson, and Mrs. Garrison McClintock constituted the receiving line and stood at the doorway leading from the small ball room into the large ball room, which was reserved for the dimeers.

Biroad strips of orange bunting festooned the ceiling, the lights were dimmed with veils of greenery, and between the mirrors, which reflected distinguished men and women with gorgeous bejeweled headgear topping their evening frocks, were tall evergreen trees starred with super-daisles in orange and white.

Says we must make kidneys clean the blood and pimples disappear.

Pimples, sores, and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body. It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these cruptions, says a noted authority, these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Saits and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of nimples.

Jad Saits is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.—Advt.
